Shri Vivek Sharma, counsel for the petiitoenr.
Shri Sandeep Dubey, Govt. Advocate for the State.

Heard.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though the petitioner has been acquitted and further the Collector has directed to consider the case of the petitioner for reinstatement but the same has not been done by the Bank. Learned counsel submits that the representations submitted by the petitioner on various occasions, but the same have not been considered.

Learned counsel for the State submits that the petitioner may be directed to make a representation before the concerned competent authorities afresh and if such representation is made, the same shall be considered and decided.

Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising his grievances before the competent authority of respondents alongwith a copy of the petition and this order within a period of three weeks from today and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within a period of three months from the date of receipt of representation. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy available under the law.

With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of at this stage with the aforesaid liberty.
